LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

LEGISLATIVE FOREWORD

The Legislative branch of state government drafts and passes the laws providing for the well-being, growth and development of the state, and for the protection of her citizens.

The Wyoming State Legislature consists of 30 State Senators and 64 State Representatives. The term of office for the Senators is four years, 16 of the members being elected at a general election at which a President of the United States is elected, the balance at an off-year election. The entire body of the House of Representatives is elected every two years to serve a two-year term. Terms begin on the first Monday in January following election.

The 1981 reapportionment of the State Legislature provides for a total of 30 State Senators and 64 State Representatives. See page 128 for implementation details.

The general legislative session convenes on the second Tuesday of January of the odd-numbered years and shall not exceed 40 legislative working days. In 1972, voters in Wyoming approved an amendment to the Wyoming Constitution which permitted an additional twenty-day session of the Wyoming Legislature in even-numbered years for the consideration of the State's budget. The budget session convenes on the second Tuesday of February of the even-numbered years and shall not exceed 20 legislative working days.

The present Legislature has a Republican majority in both bodies; 19 Republicans to 11 Democrats in the Senate; and 38 Republicans to 25 Democrats and one Independent in the House.

In 1983 there are three women serving in the Senate and 19 women in the House of Representatives.

The general legislative session of the 47th Legislature convened on January 11, 1983.

The budget session of the 47th Legislature will convene on February 14, 1984.

With dignity
In the far and might - y West, Where the crim - son sun seeks rest, There's a grow - ing splen - did State that lies a - bove On the breast of this great land; Where the mas - sive Rock - ies stand, There's Wy - o - ming young and strong, the State I love!
In thy flow - ers wild and sweet, Col - ors rare and per - fumes meet; There's the col - um - bine so pure, the dai - sy too, Wild the rose and red it springs, White the but - ton and its rings, Thou art loy - al for th'y're red and white and blue.
Where thy peaks with crown - ed head, Ris - ing till the sky they wed, Sit like snow queens rul - ing wood and stream and plain; Neath thy gran - ite bas - es deep, Neath thy bos - om's broad ened sweep, Lie the rich - es that have gained and brought thee fame.
Oth - er treas - ures thou dost hold, Men and wom - en thou dost mould; True and ear - nest are the lives that thou dost raise, Strength thy chil - dren thou dost teach, Na - ture's truth thou givst to each, Free and no - ble are thy work - ings and thy ways.
In the na - tion's ban - ner free There's one star that has for me A ra - diance pure and a splen - dor like the sun; Mine it is, Wy - o - ming's star, Home it leads me near or far; O Wy - o - ming! all my heart and love you've won!
REFRAIN
Wy - o - ming, Wy - o - ming! Land of the sun - light clear! Wy - o - ming, Wy - o - ming! Land that we hold so dear! Wy - o - ming, Wy - o - ming! Prec - ious art thou and thine; Wy - o - ming, Wy - o - ming! Be - lov - ed State of mine!
the State I love O Wy - o - ming! Wy - o - ming, O so dear!
